OR VACANCY IN A PUBLIC OFFICE WHERE THE BODY HAS THE

Attorney LeSage advised the reason for this closed meeting is to discuss an appointment due to Jesse Arjes' recent resignation. He also added that State statute give the Council the power to appoint such a person. Mayor Arellano advised he has had 2 names of interested parties given to him for this position. Councilman Venier added that he has 1 name of a person of interest. Discussion then ensued regarding these 3 possible candidates, with each Council member giving input on why or why not they would be considered. Doing a press release was mentioned but the Council decided not to go this route. Mayor Arellano stressed the person they select would be another steward for the City. At this time, Mayor Arellano advised this next week would allow for names of interested parties to be gathered then an Executive Session could be placed on the July 20th agenda with a possible motion after to appoint the new Council member if all in agreement.

A motion was read by Councilman Tucker and seconded by Councilman Venier at 7:55 p.m. and the roll call was unanimous to reconvene into Open Session.
