Illinois State Charities Commission. First Annual Report of the State Charities Commission to the Honorable Charles S. Deneen, Governor of Illinois: Springfield, Illinois, December 31, 1910.

Used. Excerpt from First Annual Report of the State Charities Commission to the Honorable Charles S. Deneen, Governor of Illinois: Springfield, Illinois, December 31, 1910 The first year of the service of the State Charities Commission has been one of preparation. Its work was interrupted in its very midst by the resignation of its efficient executive secretary, Mr. William C. Graves, who left the field of State charity for that of private, with a feeling of regret on his part and a consciousness of loss on the commission's. This Commission has expressed, in. Its records of its proceedings, the esteem in which this officer has been held, the confidence it has reposed in his integrity and judgment and the fine opinion it has formed of his work. His services have been services for his State and for humanity in the highest and best sense of these broad terms. 49.99
