1. Mount and Ride! by Elizabeth Hawthorn Buck First Edition!

- Title: Mount and Ride!
- Description: Mount and Ride! - A young adult historical fiction book based in South Carolina during the Revolutionary War. "Known to Americans in songs and story is the name of Francis Marion, leader of the South Carolina militia during the Revolutionary War. Never present at any decisive battle, he had the thankless and often discouraging task of leading his little band on raids in the region of South Carolina held by British troops between 1780 and 1782. He was important as the rallying point of a resistance that never faltered even when the cause seemed most hopeless." - taken from E. H. B.'s historical note.

7. "This Infernal War": The Confederate Letters of Sgt. Edwin H. Fay First Edition!

- Title: "This Infernal War": The Confederate Letters of Sgt. Edwin H. Fay
- Description: "This Infernal War": The Confederate Letters of Sgt. Edwin H. Fay - "The confederate letters of Edwin H. Fay are remarkable documents, bearing little resemblance to the average run of missives that poured from Southern camps during the course of the Civil War. The spelling and grammar reveal a sound education. The handwriting is neat, almost to the point of daintiness, the lines straight and even, and the ink--only a few were written with pencil--uncommonly good for the C.S.A..." - taken from the introduction.
