The sister city concept traces its origin to shortly after World War II. A national sister city movement emerged when U.S. President Dwight D. Eisenhower convened a White House Conference on citizen diplomacy in 1956.
WHAT IS DIXON SISTERS CITIES?

The Dixon Sister Cities Association is a non-profit diplomacy organization that promotes creating and strengthening partnerships between the City of Dixon and International Communities in an effort to increase global cooperation at the municipal level, to promote cultural understanding and to stimulate economic growth and development, and tourism. The Association advocates the movement for local community and development and volunteer action by motivating and empowering private citizens, municipal officials and businesses to create and conduct long-term programs of mutual interest and benefit.
